What's new in Bounty Hunter: Stampede - Population Pack 3:

Version (REVISION!!!) Hi, everybody, I'm currently trying something out. To start with, let me explain a bit of why I'm doing it. Firstly, I have noticed a lot of people complaining about the colour balance of the Pegasus Warrior dress I've made before (LINK). I don't want to do something that would cause more hurt to people who don't want them with their makeup. I hope this will help the debate to sort itself out without conflict. Secondly, I never was good at art until I got around shape files. I've used them to make dolls, prototypes and alt characters, always with the size of 4 inches/100mm. I now have the chance to combine them with By Geek standards, which people seem to argue over? But I've never been really good at art. Anyways, enough of my rambling. I figured I should stop drawing the dress itself now. I've been making another one that is going to be the daily outfit for the extera. I want to change the dress first, to get it right. I haven't taken a clear photo yet, but here are the differences. The big one is the addition of the short sleeves and the Angel to the cuffs of the dress. I also added a white dress underneath the Pegasus Warrior dress that I'll use for real. There are other differences, such as slightly bigger/more relaxed wings, revised shading, and a better hood. I'll be using the cloth pattern that I made for the former dress as a base for the new one. Here are a few shots of the 2 dresses together. The clothes I've used so far are white and green but I have a larger range of colours for the cloth, plus I've put my model in different coloured clothes and the pattern I'm using. The backpack and shoes are from my own armour set (take your time to make ones!) and the wings, pauldron and shield are made by a character called SKIKITSU. Be sure to check him out! I made the raindrops on the dress with some paint, but I'm going to try recreating them using decals; so I'll still have to try and achieve that look on the Angel's dress.

Deeply Dark is a surprise combination of survival horror and roguelike game made by the DALESI brothers. Explore the forest, use and combine objects to find a way to stop the curse. Equip yourself with artifacts and upgrade your equipment to face enemies in the Oneiric Plane. WARNING Deeply Dark isn't finished and it is in constant development. There are some things that we will improve during the early access such like the beginner tutorial and a combat improvement that will make the fights smoother. SURVIVE THE CURSE You need to help the Guardian, Shado of the Seven, a powerful mage, to stop the curse that is haunting him, you will have to work against the clock. Let's do this together! GAME DESCRIPTION: In deep forest you shouldn't be afraid of the dark. In this new sci-fi horror game the characters are trying to survive after discovering the fact that all the people on the planet have been turned into zombies by nanobots. You'll be in a very unforgiving world with limited ammunition and food supplies, and if you get bitten, your game is over. However, you've managed to create a pair of powerful alien melee weapons and they're all you've got. NOTE - The game has a story and a gameplay, please make sure you choose the one you really want to experience. - Enjoy light-hearted and dark-toned mood in deep forest, while you try to survive in a world of despair. - The game has more than 10 hours of gameplay, and there are many things to collect and interact with in-game. - The idea of Deep Forest originated from the dark comedy sketches we were trying to write for a web-based sitcom, but after 6 months of writing and 6 months of developing, the project became very big and we decided to continue. - The game is in alpha stage and as of October 2015 it has been in early access for more than 13 months. Game is currently in beta
