The Champions League 2019/2020 final will take place on Saturday, April 26 at the Atletico Paranaense. The hosts will face England's Arsenal in an all-Spanish final. The 2019/2020 edition of the tournament will feature 32 teams, the same as last season, after a-la-carte expansions in December with Nice and Valencia. 20 teams will be directly qualified. The other 12 places were filled through two stages, five places for second places in this season's UEFA country rankings, two places for the third-ranked team among the next four clubs, two places for the next team in the rankings and three places for the winners of the play-offs.
