Built for ages 8+ Ages 8+ Only In Constellations: The Game of Stargazing and the Night Sky, players compete to populate the sky with real constellations. How to Play: In each game, a player sits facing the board, which has a star space for the player to draw a star card. Players use two cards. One card allows them to draw one star card at a time. The other card allows them to modify one star. The game ends when all the player's cards are used. Each player scores the constellation points on the cards. Once all players have scored, the player with the most constellation points wins! Key Features: 30-60 Minutes - Whether you have 30 minutes or 60 minutes to play, you will have plenty of time to play Constellations: The Game of Stargazing and the Night Sky! Single Player - The game is designed so that it's easily played by just one player. 2-4 Players - The game can be played cooperatively or competitively with up to 4 players. Rules: Play Style: Solve and Play How to Play: In each game, a player sits facing the board, which has a star space for the player to draw a star card. Players use two cards. players. Fairplay Policy: The game is free to play online. However, those who have purchased an Early Release or a Developer's Pack will have access to additional features, including the ability to play with the intended 2-4 player group and the ability to play offline with a list of family friends. Customer Reviews: "I really like that the features that are available in the game are more accessible to younger kids than they are for myself. I was able to play a game with a 7-year-old and she had no problem, and I have never had any problems with any of the features available in the game." -- Bella, parent of a 7-year-old "The only reason I would not recommend this game is because it doesn't have enough features,
