Have you ever wanted to head out and turn a simple journey into a thrilling spectacle? SnowRunner® is the one game that lets you do just that. Play solo, or with a friend as you race through a snow-covered post-apocalyptic world trying to be the first to get from A to B. From steep snow-covered slopes to hazardous open terrain, you're never alone in this adventure. We've teamed up with an array of support cast and characters that will bring your experience to life in the most immersive ways imaginable. The world of SnowRunner is made more accessible with the addition of dynamic weather effects, road and trail markers, and dynamic map elements that you can add to your gameplay experience. Is your journey a good one or a bad one? The choice is yours! Enter a world of snow and ice • Speed through the snow-covered post-apocalyptic world of Edge City. • Enjoy varied, dynamic terrain types including trees, rock, slopes, and more. • Manage the snow-covered track with your own path indicators. Create an experience that is unique to you • Personalize your character with three different vehicles, all with their own strengths and weaknesses. • Use the built-in compass, weather effects, and a character-based A.I. to keep yourself on track. Experience new ways to play • Join up with a friend to play as a team, or put you against the clock on your own. • Race through dynamic weather effects and discover new challenges every time you play. • Interact with a cast of characters that will add to your gameplay experience.

Note: Due to the dynamic weather systems and optional snow speed upgrade, SnowRunner requires 1.6.0 or greater to play. ©2017 Epic Games, Inc. All rights reserved. Unreal and the Unreal logo are trademarks or registered trademarks of Epic Games, Inc. All other trademarks are the Vita version... Oh no. I can't have that... I mean, I used to have this mindset that if you guys were developing a Japanese game, you'd port it to the Vita first because of the sales numbers. I know a lot of Vita owners don't really see Vita as a gaming platform or as a gaming machine. Some people don't care for it at all and just treat it like a phone.

fans understand why I wasn't shocked Howard signed with the Nets is because the Lakers still think they will win the Dwight Howard sweepstakes. I overheard Kobe Bryant explaining to Howard's agent that he spoke with GM Mitch Kupchak and even in the 1st quarter he tried to convince him. I'm not sure if Kobe shared this bit of information with Howard as a trap to see who Howard was going to run to or if he was talking to his agent in private about Howard before he decided for real. Heck, as good as Kobe was at setting up (or helping) Michael Jordan in the 90s, he's not always been one of the best team GMs. In fact, he played in three straight NBA Finals under Bud Grant, George Karl and Phil Jackson. Now note that in that post-season, Coach Yoda, Phil, Rick Fox and/or Vincent [Red Rude] all played decisive roles in helping the team sweep.

puzzles. Element TD is the newest tower defense game to the world. It takes the current framework of tower defense and mixes it with a new original idea. Players are given a vast amount of tower combinations with the versatility of any tabletop game. Combine the elements to create a wide array of towers with different powers. This game is still in development and we are adding content regularly. We have plans to add expansions like the all-time favorite "Raise the Walls" along with new elements, new towers, and new gameplay. We have some amazing features planned, but these are all in the future. We want to be sure we do it right first, and that takes time!
