Just read the description :) == IMPORTANT TALKING POINTS == I don't do updates without giving you, the player, a reason! - New levels - New stages - New characters - Many new enemies - Many new gameplay mechanics - More story The reason is the same for everything - it's really simple, I believe in making content and I want to continue to add more to the game, and right now I'm thinking that's just as important to me as finishing it. If I give you a reason, it will help you decide if the game is good enough for you to continue. A bad reason will let you know what you want to change and where. The reason will tell you that I'm working on bringing the content you want, it will tell you what's coming up and where. But if I don't give you a reason, you will just have to trust me. But don't worry, I'll keep you up to date about what's going on! Just ask a question and I'll answer it as soon as I can and give you some relevant points for the game. I can never really expect you to believe me unless I show you something. So I made a trailer! And if you want to know more about me and my other games, you can check my d41b202975

What's new:

(what a tongue twister is sometimes good for) Friday, March 1, 2013 wazzusdicked MERRY GROG DAY, YOU CHARMING LITTLE FELLOW. I've been watching Captain America: The Winter Soldier, I always do, more-so as I've watched-through the bulk of the second season of Sons of Anarchy, feeling capable to say coherently something about both, at the same time. What I am saying, though, more than anything, is how depressed, angry and sick I am. I spent a good chunk of the last weekend deconstructing this recent misguided anti-torture film, a film that was tailored as a piece of propaganda for the Tea Party, written by the newest Hateful Nazi pack dog, George Clooney, who's films have had built-in appeal to the Republicans for a while. He's the same guy who wrote Syriana, a film that was used in equal parts to help advertise the War on Terror and to remind Americans about their beloved Bush Crime Family. I am loath to go into a lot of detail about this fairly BSed out piece of shit, the only thing I'll ever bring up is that the plot involved a senator, played by Richard Jenkins, who is killed during the Iraq war...and this movie makes light of that. Like, in a rape-like, kill-an-innocent-woman-if-you-can kind of light. I won't go into the majority of the nitty gritty. To do that would be impossible, because the movie had zero script supervision and was mostly consisting of vague get-at-ragdolling-faces-so-tears-spur-out set-ups. Other than that, they just improv'd it, I assume, and are sharing the fun of said wild-style improv. Anyone who watched the movie knows what happened. People are killed, snipers opened up on crowds, several people are accused of being terrorists, and so on. Here's the real kicker: the reason people were killing each other? Because one faction was in favor of interrogation of terrorists, while the other was in favor of torturing them. It's not like there weren't already plenty of people making the case for torturing terrorists. Ever since the Abu Ghraib scandal, there have been people saying that certain actions were torture, but I've also personally heard a good portion of
