Kingdom Heroes is an action RPG like no other. The lush graphics and gorgeous music make it an unforgettable experience for players. In the game, you start off by choosing to be a Warrior or a Mage. There is also a Hero who combines the characteristics of both. In the midst of an Elden Legend described by the world as an “ecosystem of multiple worlds”, players will be able to interact with one another through social networks and participate in collaborative action between the two different factions, the Dukes and the Knights. There are over 500 skills and thousands of items to obtain. Multiple solutions are available to each quest, and the gameplay will reflect the different personality of each hero. As an unrivaled fantasy action RPG, KINGDOM HEARTS is a standalone game that can be played separately from the console titles in the Kingdom Hearts series. There have been no announcements on a release date, and it’s not certain whether this game will be released separately or bundled with the first edition of Kingdom Hearts 3D: Dream Drop Distance. However, it is still being developed. ◆ [Main Features] ◆ □ Rich Fantasy Setting A vast world rich in diversity. □ Action on a Huge Scale Over 40 hours of gameplay. □ Intense Cooperative Action A unique online multiplayer element that allows you to feel the presence of others. □ Quality of Presentation Huge beauty and realistic atmosphere. □ Playable as Your Favorite Kingdom Hearts Characters The World Sore, Aqua, Tetsu, Donald, Goofy, or King Mickey, or an original character. ◆ [Other Stories Developed by the KINGDOM HEARTS Series] ◆ □ KINGDOM HEARTS FINAL MIX: The universe continues after the events of the original KINGDOM HEARTS Final Mix and FINAL FANTASY VII. What's new in Elden Ring:

Which game is this supposed to be? This is generic "uber RPG game" description written so lame that I doubt if anyone could have built the kind of game this is talking about. In reality this is a generic site describing completely generic Steam game out of the catalog which someone is trying to trick visitors with by making a fake trailer for an upcoming Steam game. For LNR groups for Legend of the Fifth Child, call Alastria's tavern and ask a local for "Lady Aurane". She will provide you and up to 6 of your close friends a free copy of the game. Casteros the local tavern owner will then distribute copies to the first 5 or 6 people that come by her tavern. So if you have an online LFR group, make sure the invitees have not already received their copy.
