Plot The world has been immersed in a long period of peace since the end of the War of Gods. Many years have passed, and the land is now governed under the benevolent order of wizards. On the night of the 32nd day of the second month, a great and calamitous event occurred. A powerful rift opened between the world of living beings and the world of the dead. The living have gone mad with terror. The sky has been filled with monsters, and with the sound of their great footsteps, they have spread like a wave. Many unnatural calamities and murders have occurred, and even in the heart of the town of Graywater, the setting sun has begun to rise. This incident started a full-scale massacre that has spread throughout the land. The world of the dead has been awakened, and it is said to be a battlefield of terrifying proportions.

Backstory Fifteen years ago, the war between the gods and the world broke out, and it lasted more than 20 years. This is the story of the present. The 22nd day of the second month, the wizards of the nation gathered their remaining forces to battle the monster war. Even as they stood on the battlefield of Graywater with their backs to the heavens, they were attacked by several monsters. A horde of monsters crushed through the mountain pass that was previously considered impregnable. With a wave of their powerful arms, they turned the entire battlefield into a gigantic
