Producer & Engineer Joe Reider has been busy in the mixing process of our new sample pack, the Natural Drum set. With over 100 Mb of sample material, this new collection follows the footsteps of the previous Natural Pack Vol. 5 released in April. The collection captures sounds of the Ecuadorian Death March that are used in the traditional pre-Hispanic dances where the music enhances the movement of the dance. We have added three new clusters containing three different types of frames, hammers, and slides. The collection is split in three parts capturing a Percussion section with drums, Hooligan snaps, and Jibaro drum. A Light Percussion section consists of xylophones, triangle, conga drums, rattle, and bongo mallets. We also added a collection of African drums and a more exotic section of gongs, xylophones, shaker, and rattles. Award winning producer & Engineer Joe Reider has created a sample library for BeatsMastered in collaboration with 8dio which will be released on November 8th 2015. This sample library is of huge importance for many producers. With this sample, you will have more than 100 individual samples that can be tweaked to your needs. Joe Reider has been busy in the mixing process and he finished this sample set to a very high standard. In this collection, Joe Reider focusses on a 7-panel claves, two floor toms and one bass drum. The library is also complemented by 37 beats that can be added to your production. If you want to add a different sound to your existing drum beat, you now have the possibility to do that. The MicroDrum features exclusively claves or small tom drums that produce incredible results. The Tomber has claves and a 14"-14"-14"-14" tom setup. This collection also includes different samples from the drum set. The samples are mainly sampled at medium or high samples and they are processed with either tube or boutique processing. Almost every sample is mapped with controllable velocity curves and has an amazingly dry signal.

Sound: 8Dio, a label that seems to contain more instruments than just drum kits, has opened the door to the Soul Playground with this latest release. I dont know if youve heard of Soul Playground, but its what this collection of sounds is intended for. Soul Playground is a contemporary, high-energy, groove-based library that is specifically designed for a large ensemble of percussion instruments. Thus, this library is perfectly suited for hip-hop/jazz/soul/funk and the like. This is a very fun and funky library for hip-hop/soul/funk and the like. It has six drum kits with bass lines, including a funky full kit, as well as two ribbon sets, so you have plenty of options. Each kit is 16 to a note, but with 70 drum samples that range from classic fat snare to a brash euphonium. 8Dio s brilliant production skills have really gone a long way in making this collection really hip. So, if you are making hip-hop or r&b, funk, or soul, you'll find something here for you. First off, if you've heard my reviews of their other libraries, you know how good this guys sounds. For this library, they have not skimped on the amount of sounds. You get 16 to a note with six kits, but you also get two sets of ribbons, which will have you playing as many as 52 different drums, and they're all very well-suited for funky bass lines. Tiberius Drumming is a series of rhythm-playing drums sampled from a single drum kit and recorded in open stereo. The kit is the same used by the Russian National Orchestra for the Moscow Tchaikovsky Open Musical Festival which Tiberius Drumming was created for. 5ec8ef588b
