Last weekend, I had the pleasure of sitting down and having a chat with the man himself, the one and only, the king of the streaming: and you know what, I'm not talking about King Louis XIV. I'm talking about Andy from Filme-O, a man who is more than just a social media influencer. Let's get right to the point of the story: after having heard me out on the matter, Andy has gone above and beyond, and is now offering up a 30 day free trial of VLC for all content owners and rightsholders. And don't worry, Andy will only be able to offer you a free license of VLC if you are in need of a free app to use in order to get your content onto your TV (no, not a browser-based app like Popcorn Time, please). So, how exactly does this work? Well, let's say you are a content owner and you are interested in seeing if you can build a relationship with Andy of Filme-O, the renowned VLC streaming expert. First, you will have to send him a message. From the website, you can browse for his contact details or use the search function (the 'reach out' button can be found in the top right corner of every website and page), find what you're looking for, and click on the link to be directed to the relevant page. You can find out more about Andy
