The Promised Land Going forward, how can those who know Christ say, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes ...." (Romans 1:16) The way to learn the truth is to be told it by the Lord Himself, and to live in that Truth. As Paul said, "The Spirit Himself testifies together with our spirit, that we are children of God" (Romans 8:16). How many of us today are truly disciples? Are we truly grounded in the Truth? When the world reflects upon our religion, what does it say about us? Does it tell the truth? Or is it more of a oneway conversation, with many different points of view, and no one truly satisfied with what the other has to say? In order to become truly grounded in the Truth, we must submit to the Lord's teaching on our own soul, which is: the more we know Him, the more we will love Him. By learning God's word, and practicing His teachings, and submitting ourselves to the truth, we become perfected in Christ, we become His disciples. We become willing, and ready, to live out what our faith says is the way to life, and to love, and to peace. So, if we are truly loved by God, then He will give His children the Power to live for Him. He will empower us with the ability to live in accordance with His commandments. When the world calls us Christians, we are to stand up and say, "I have given my life to Christ, to live for Him, for His glory. I believe His word, I believe it wholeheartedly, and I live in it." Our greatest weapon, in the battle for the Truth, is our faith in Christ, and the teaching of His word. We must be willing to surrender to the Lord, to learn His truths, and to practice those truths. Then when the Lord gives us faith to live out His word, we will stand out in the world. As people look at us, they will say, "04aeff104c
